Fire on Fire

Flickering shadows on surface of the mountain

JUDGMENT

Background: blockage caused by inner turmoil, shifting sands

Predicament: Double Fire, multi or bi polar?

Changing Line: So abruptly it comes, like burning, dying, being abandoned.

Leadership: a managerial class on surface seemingly but

Actually all is a show, the world not as it seems whilst

Fundamentally: at Breaking Point, things cannot remain this way.

(so what else is new?)

**The symbolic associations paint a scene of hell. Some scholars consider this judgment to be the most vicious of the 384 judgments of the lines in the Yi Jing. [Wu]*
